

Announcement for Opening of Competition for Support to Scientific Meetings by Young researchers

The competition for funding of initiatives promoting training or scientific debate in the areas of economic and social history, having as organizers, or being directed at, young researchers, is now open. The regulation can be found here.

The proposals must be presented until 10 June 2018 to the following email address: geral@aphes.pt. The proposals must include the following elements:

- a) Subject of the event
- b) Description of the event, with all the information necessary to assess its relevance (example: objectives of the event, demonstration of its interest for the young researchers participating in it, names of the speakers, etc.)
- c) Location and date of the event
- d) Number of participants
- e) Budget
- f) Amount asked
- g) Demonstration that the candidates meet the requirements of article 3, §1, of the regulation

Any additional information must be asked using the email address of APHES: geral@aphes.pt.

Lisbon, 16 April 2018

The Board of Directors of APHES